1. Cut a piece of 9" x 7" heavyweight (such as 110# cover/297 GSM or greater) white cardstock. On the 9" side, score at 1", 4", 5", and 8".
2. On the 7" side, score at the 1" and 6".
3. On the 9" side, make a 1" cut inward on each of the score lines (at 1", 4", 5", and 8"), just up to where the score lines intersect as shown. Repeat for the other side of the panel to make six square flaps.
4. Place two or three pieces of 1/4" Scor-Tape on each of the six square flaps, but do not remove tape liners yet.
5. Turn the panel over and fold inward along all of the score lines.

6. Pull the tape liners, and bring the tabs toward the side flaps to form a box with an attached lid.
7. To make the gift card insert, cut a piece of 7" x 5" gold cardstock. On the 7" side, score at 2 1/4", 3 1/2", and 4 3/4".
8. Fold the cardstock in half along the middle score line. Punch a hole in the folded center with the decorative label punch. (The punch should only go halfway in along the fold.)
9. To make the gift card slit, turn over the cardstock to the reverse side. Draw a pencil line across the short width of the cardstock at the 3 3/4" mark. Then make a mark along the pencil line 3/4" inward from each side.

10. Cut a slit on both sides of the punched label just to the intersection of the pencil marks. (To make the slit wide enough for a gift card, cut on either side of the pencil line and then nip off the narrow strip of card stock that remains in between.)
11. Pre-fold the insert piece along the remaining score lines.

12. Place ¼" Scor-Tape along each of the short ends of the insert piece and remove tape liners. Adhere the insert to the inside of the box, making sure the side with the slit faces up. Insert a gift card into the slit.
13. Decorate the outside of the box with ribbon (this will help the box stay closed) and other embellishments.
14. Optional: This box has enough space near the inside front (approximately 1" x 1" x 5") to hold some candy in that area. Cut a 1" x 5" strip of cardstock and adhere 5 Hershey's kisses or other small wrapped candy to the strip with small glue dots. (A roll of Rolos wrapped in cardstock or patterned paper also looks nice.) Adhere the strip of candy kisses to the inside front of the box.
